Dear Mr. Dulles:

I am most appreciative of the opportunity which you gave Michael Burke and myself to discuss our joint project last week. We are, of course, disappointed that an arrangement is not feasible at this time, however, we understand fully the circumstances which prompted your decision and are most certainly in agreement with you.

I only hope that at some future date when world tensions are not as acute as at the present, you will give us some consideration to reopening these discussions. Meanwhile, if we can be of any service to you, please let us know.

Kindest personal regards.

Sincerely,
